

FAQ-Sheet for ECF2731
Semester 1, 2018

1. Can I use another edition of the textbook or another textbook?

Hirshey, M. and Bentzen, E. (2016), Managerial Economics, 14th Edition is the prescribed text for this course and therefore we recommend to use this textbook. If you use another edition or textbook we suggest that you compare the content of your textbook with the content of the prescribed textbook using a library copy.

2. The slides are not in ppt. format. How can I print more than one slide per page?

1. Save the file.
2. Open the file in Adobe Acrobat Reader
3. Properties
4. Finishing
5. Pages per sheet (select the number of pages per sheet)

The above description might slightly differ by printer.

3. I am not satisfied with my allocated tutorial and I would like to change to another tutorial.

This is a relatively large course and the tutorial times and capacity are constrained by the availability of rooms and the individual room capacity. Basically, students cannot swap tutorials after the final allocation via allocate+. We only allow a change in tutorials under special circumstances (e.g. employment, medical conditions). These will be dealt with on a case by case basis and require a written proof of the special circumstances (e.g. letter from the employer, doctor's note).

4. Are there tutorials held in week 1 of the semester?

No. Tutorials commence in week 2.

5. Do you provide the answers to the problem sets covered in the tutorials?

Yes, answers will be uploaded on moodle by the following week.

6. Do you provide a formula sheet in the mid-semester test or final exam?

No.

7. Do you provide a practice mid-term test and final-exam?

We are going to upload a set of mid-term test sample questions (+ solutions) on moodle about a week before the mid-term exam. We are also going to upload a practice final-exam (+ solutions) on moodle before the final exam period.

8. I missed a large number of tutorials. Can I hand in some make up work (i.e. an essay) instead?

Unfortunately, we do not accept make up work. Marks in this course can only be obtained via the mid-term exam, tutorial attendance, and the final exam.

9. I missed the mid-term exam. Can I hand in some make up work (i.e. an essay) instead?

Unfortunately, we do not accept make up work. Marks in this course can only be obtained via the mid-term exam, tutorial attendance, and the final exam.

10. I am allocated to the Monday (Friday) lecture but I am unable to sit the mid-term exam on Monday (Friday). Can I sit the exam on Friday (Monday) instead?

No.

11. I have a question regarding some of the topics. When and where can I ask questions?

You have the following options to ask questions and get feedback:

- During the lectures and tutorials.
- During the lecturer's office hours (MON 1:00-2:00, Office, H 4.36 (please check moodle announcement for short-term change in office hours).
 - The office hours will be live-streamed on youtube. If you cannot attend the office hours in person, you can use the chat function in youtube and ask questions.
- Send an email to the lecturer (ecf2731@gmail.com) or your tutor.
- Call the lecturer (9903 4515).
- If you are on campus, drop by my office (H 4.36).
- The discussion forum on moodle.
- Please do NOT use the mail function on moodle.

12. What is the 'Math Refresher/Math Boot Camp'?

This course does not require knowledge of calculus. However, to improve the students' understanding of the prescribed text, we are offering short videos and practice exercises on moodle